Oak Holdings gets planning permission for YES! project

Article 3734220
AFX - 14 July 2006

LONDON (AFX) - AIM-listed Oak Holdings announced planning permission has been granted for its £270m YES! leisure development in South Yorkshire.

In a letter, the Government Office for Yorkshire and Humber has told the local planning authority of Rotherham Metropolitan Borough Council that "having carefully considered the relevant planning issues raised by this proposal, together with all the representations received, the Secretary of State has concluded that her intervention would not be justified".

Chief executive Steve Lewis said: "This approval has come some months in advance of our expectations and is a major step for us."
